

Mak Dhog Monastery, Aloobari, Darjeeling Project: Mak Dhog Monastery, Aloobari, Darjeeling is run by Yolmo Buddhist Association. The monastery has the collections of several manuscripts, wooden plaque, mask and other objects. Out of that we are restored 2 nos. old manuscripts such as (1)Gyetongba which is written in gold and (2) Kagyur (tripitika), which are Buddha's oral teachings, 21nos. wooden masks, 137 nos. wooden plaques and 4nos. mud idols and other 157 nos. of manuscripts; all conservation and restoration work done in the premises of the monastery.

Conservation of Manuscripts

Before Conservation

After Conservation

Conservation of wooden masks

Before Restoration

After Restoration

Conservation of wooden plaque

Before Restoration

After Restoration

